Dear Swope Relatives:

Don and Gyanne have asked me to write about my 100th birthday celebration. They, together with their spouses, Charlie and Sara Mac, went all out to make my 100th birthday celebration very special for me.

Beginning Friday, April 18th, my actual birthday, they had arranged for a lovely tea at noon. It was the first tea I had ever had in my 100 years, and it was very special for me.

In the evening there was a supper for the immediate family at Don and Sara Mac's home with banners, delicious food, a lovely birthday cake, and gifts. There, I was presented a special photograph album, with each family, my children and grandchildren, preparing their own separate pages of memories for me.

Saturday, Gyanne and Charlie's daughter, Cindy, and her husband, Gregg, and their two boys, Josh, and Ben, who had come all the way from Ft. Lauderdale, took me out for a nice lunch. Afterward, they stayed and played with me my favorite card game, Skipbo, which was even more fun because of the enthusiasm of the boys.

Saturday night was a big event, with all the immediate family gathering in a private dining room at a wonderful local restaurant for dinner. There were 19 of us, including four grandchildren and six great grandchildren, coming from all over Georgia and Florida. (My great grandson, Josh had even come all the way from New York, where he is studying at Pharmacy College, and had exams the following week). Of course the private dining room was festive, and beautifully decorated. I was so honored, I felt very humbled. During the meal, Charlie, (who does voice-overs on radio and television) with his talented voice, read several of the poems I had written. We all enjoyed the evening.

Sunday was another big day! There was a reception given by the family for me in the big Memorial Hall at Sparks Inn where I reside. Everyone was invited, family and friends. Over 100 people came out to honor me and wish me a Happy 100th Birthday. In addition to my immediate family, Ross and Mae were there, representing the Indiana and Swope contingency, old friends and neighbors from Florida, a bus load of former church friends from College Park, fellow residents of Sparks Inn, and even some former students.

The Hall was beautifully decorated, made special with flowers, dozens of roses (gifts from former students, friends, and well-wishers), and a table of memorabilia, with photographs of me, alone, as well as with family and friends, going all the way back to my childhood and forward until now.

There was finger food, punch, and still another birthday cake. Everyone seemed to enjoy the celebration and helped me to have a very special reception and 100th birthday. I also got a lot of compliments on my lovely family, of which I am very proud.

As you might expect, we were all worn out by the end of all of the three days of celebrations. I felt bushed, but honored, humbled, and very thankful for my wonderful family, my friends, and a blessed 100 years!

FROM GYANNE SMITH

Mother had a wonderful celebration of her big birthday. Thank all of you for sending cards and notes. She really treasured them and is still saving every one. She received over 100 cards! A very fitting tribute for a lovely 100 year old. She was beautiful and gracious and everyone was impressed with how much younger she looked and acted than her 100 years!

There were probably around 100 people at the Sunday Reception held at Christian City where she lives. The area was decorated so lovely thanks mostly to the efforts of Sara Mac. She and I had done most of the planning and Sara Mac had personally made many of the food delicacies and also the table decorations. There was certainly plenty of goodies and Birthday Cake. Mother had a different cake each of the 3 days!

Relatives attending were Charlie and I from Jacksonville, FL, Mother's granddaughter Cindy (FT Lauderdale), her husband Gregg, great grandsons Joshua (Albany, NY) and Ben; Granddaughter Kelly (Orlando) and her husband Rick and great granddaughter Sarah; Don and Sara Mac (Fairburn, GA); grandson Brian (Marietta, GA) and wife Trish and great granddaughter Jennifer; Granddaughter Amy (Augusta, GA) and husband Jerry, and great grands Lily and Fuller. And of course Ross and Mae!

What a wonderful surprise for them to appear at the Reception! It was a terrific time of family and we were all so proud of our "MeMe" as the kids all call her.

She wasn't accepted on the Smucker's Today Show spot but maybe next year when she is 101!!!!

HELLO FAMILY:

Well two days ago, snow again, the mountains are still covered with snow and for that we are thankful. We still experience some cold, but today 64 degrees and we worked outdoors all day.

Yesterday found myself helping my grandson with an Evel Kneivel costume for the Wax Museum for his class in May.....he will even take in his motorbike for this one!@ We had a great time, and he looks just like a 10 year old Evel! Afterwards we played baseball in the back with the neighbors, and I found a few places that ache today....

We have the garden plowed, our daughter Audrey is getting aggressive this year, and plans on feeding us and I am sure 1/2 of Missoula County....We have plans to can more food this year, at least that is her hope.

Jack and I both enjoy playing with our family and are getting very anxious to go camping. We hope this finds the rest of the family well and happy. Love to all.

From Mary Kramer

FROM WINTER HAVEN, FL

We are doing well this year. Judy finished up subbing in the schools here in Polk Co. in late may. Allen, our son, had his annual FL Army Guard summer camp the first of June. While there he found out that their units will be tasked to go to Kuwait in 2010 if things continue as is. We aren't taking our usual trip to Yellowstone this year because I have become Pres. of Sunday School Class and Judy has become involved with another OES chapter that needed help. She became an officer to help keep them open rather than give up their charter.

Our weather has been HOT and DRY the first part of the year. Our lawn was showing the lack of water. We are also under watering restrictions and can water only once a week after 6 pm and before 8 am. This is not anything new but the hours have been limited more. We have added to our flowers around the house as Allen is enjoying picking out plants that he likes and want to include them into our yard.

We did some concrete work by making our own concrete borders between the yard and flower beds. Judy and I like to go to Lowe's and get the 40# bags of concrete. They are more our size to lift and pour the mix out into a plastic mix container. Working in the earlier morning is sometimes, though not often, cooler. We try to get through by 10am if we can. We tell each other that we don't perspire - we sweat. 'Course those of you that are in the Ohio Valley can relate to the high humidity that is around during the summer. We have that most all of the time.

As president of the SS Class at Beymer Memorial UMC I have had to make an annual yearbook and take charge of the monthly potlucks we have had this past year. That will continue this fall/winter, also. I sometimes relate some of our childhood experiences back in McCutchanville. The members in the class are all 5-10 years older than Judy and I. Many of them 90+ so they consider Judy & I as 'kids.'

One of the experiences I talked about was when I was in elementary and HS I had the advantage of having a Grandmother right across the road. That meant I could be spoiled (and spoil my supper) with cookies, pies or other various goodies that she had made during the day. One of the best was the rhubarb pies she made. Of course Grandma & I couldn't ever get it sweet enough so we both would add a couple teaspoonful of sugar. One thing she and Aunt Edna made that I could never cultivate a taste for was for gooseberry pie - or other gooseberry things. To continue remember back when things here - Do you remember raising asparagus? I remember Grandmother Mac had a large bed that we harvested through out the spring. I enjoyed picking it but it was another of those things that I really didn't enjoy. Hope everyone is OK.
Neil, Judy & Allen McCutchan

HELLO FROM MONTANA

We have had cooler weather here in Montana, unusual and more rain than we have seen in years....which we are very thankful for, but the huckleberry picking will be a bit later this year. We have made one camping trip in the mountains. We were fortunate to see a cow moose and her young one. Yes it was from a distant hilltop looking down and I kept it distant! I got skunked for the first time fishing. It was a great camping trip with Jack's sister and her children and grandchildren joining some of our children, grandchildren and friends. We spent 6 days and it was heaven. We laughed, played, and inspected old mines and the beautiful mountains and all they have to offer. The flowers were in full bloom.

I had the good fortune of attending my sister Kathy's wedding. What a wonderful gift that was for me. My first visit to Boise also! Bob and Kathy took me shopping first thing. They know that I love shopping! Then we got busy with the last minute preparations for the wedding. I just love Bob and his family and they treated me like a queen while I was there. The wedding was perfect, out doors in a beautiful park, with family and friends. I got to visit and tease my niece Laura, but she is a trooper and put up with her Aunt Mary. Kathy was beautiful and I am so grateful that she has found the right person to share their lives together. They are perfect for each other. We all came back to Bob and Kathy's house for food, wedding cake and cheer. Bob is a wonderful man and I am so glad that he has joined our family. We are blessed. It was a special time for Kathy and I, getting to spend some time together and I loved it. I hope to return for another visit. They took their motor home and went to the Grand Canyon for their honeymoon

Weddings are happening in our family this year. Our Grandson Brian is marrying Jessica on August 2, here in Missoula. We love Jessica.....she is a wonderful young lady and they both are so happy. They will also have a good life together. Jessica loves camping too and we look forward to them joining us sometime.

The rest of our family is growing still, with another granddaughter Michelle expecting a boy in August. We are so looking forward to his arrival and I know that his older sister, Ella will enjoy. This will be our first Great Grandson, to join our two Great Granddaughters. Time flies.

Yesterday, I worked in the garden, a large garden that our children talked us into saying that we needed it.....but as I was picking the peas, I remember helping grandmother and grandfather in the garden. Isn't it funny, but I never remember it being hot, but rather a cool place to be. Picking green beans I liked best, but the peas came first. Then we would sit on the screened in porch in those hard metal chairs and shell them. Then to can them, but always fresh peas for dinner in real butter!

Thank you Paul for continuing to keep us all in contact with one another. We appreciate all of the work that you put into this.

Last, I have had some problems with my email for the last 2 and ½ months. The problem is fixed now, but there were some lost messages. If I have not replied to you, please email me again. I am sorry for this inconvenience.

We hope that this finds the rest of the family doing well and are happy and enjoying the summer months.

FROM OTWELL

My grandson Michael, son of Dr. Jim & Jean Haughey of W. Springfield, Massachusetts is spending 8 weeks on islands of the coast of Honduras studying. The first 2 weeks were diving 2 times a day and again sometimes at night. He was helping scientists surveying coral reefs. He said the topography is unbelievable. He has been e-mailing his parents of experiences - I get a copy as Janice gets his e-mails, too.

After 2 weeks he went to a deserted island to be there for 6 weeks. After the first 3 weeks he went back to the mainland for supplies. He needed a new memory card for his camera - also new shirts. He can wash them in a bucket but they are extremely gross (his words). He's hiking in a forest radio tracking 2 Boa about 6 hours a day. The island is just one peak of the mountain chain. Yes, he's been bitten 4 times as he has to handle them. He's considering doing a poster of his research in January in Boston.

He'll e-mail again in 3 weeks before he comes home so he can be met at the airport about August 6.

Michael is a senior at Salem State College in Massachusetts and plans to take Physics and another level of EMT this fall and wants to go into Bio Engineering for graduate work.

The last of May this year Jean, Jim and the boys came with 2 friends – all college age and stayed 2 weeks. The boys cleaned up what was left in the building after the F-1 tornado took it down in January. They burnt and took a lot of loads up to the salvage company in Jasper. I did get the yard cleaned up of the tin and lumber from the roof before I had to start mowing. Jim and the boys were here last August and started then tearing out the walls, shelves and freeze plates. So this year, Jim finished taking out the sawdust and made me a new floor over all of it. Now I have a good storage room again. Jean did the cooking.

Jim found the old beam that was used in the building he had re-roofed long ago – 8-1983 and saved it.

Now I have the two buildings that have new roofs and all the rest of the damage repaired – all the brick and the concrete slab what was the old chicken house is hauled away.

FRANCE

Hi Everyone,

Just wanted to let you know that Tommy passed his Eagle Board of Review on July 22, 2008. That means he is officially an Eagle scout! YIPPEEE!! He's worked hard a long time for it. The tentative date for his Eagle Court of Honor ceremony is Sept. 20, 2008 in the morning. We don't know for sure where it will be, that's why the date is tentative.

Love to all, Lisa France

P.S. Kenny is in the production of "High School Musical" that afternoon and evening, which is why the ceremony will be in the morning.

FROM CARDINAL DRIVE EVANSVILLE

Hello. Nothing much changes here, except our age and the weather. We didn't get a garden out this year, and I sure do miss the Fresh Tomatoes, Not to mention all those good ole Green fried ones I love. I think as much. It was too wet for Harlan to get in the Garden???? Welllllll, any excuse is better than none I tell him. I'll sure miss my canned ones this winter.

Good and Happy news for us. Our Daughter is coming back to Evansville. She will start her new Job the 19th. She will be General Manager. I'm just so happy to have her back.....She has 2 cute little Black dogs, they are sisters, but don't look like they are related...One looks like its poodle Moma, and the other looks like its daddy, a tiny Hound....So Harlan and I will really get attached to them now....(we are already, in a way, from going up there).

Harlan loves being retired, so much so, he's about to wear out the recliner. I'm just glad he hasn't gotten interested in My Computer. Than he'd boot me outta My chair...haha.

I think one of the hardest things to do is try to write this letter.....and I just know I'm boring every one to death.

Harlan took a few Pictures at the family reunion...but not near enough, or close enough. Aunt Gracie is still looking Beautiful. Also Aunt Nancy...From what I could see of Uncle Paul. Harlan looks just like him.... But He looks Just like his Daddy too. He's lucky to have those handsome genes in him...all I seen of Uncle Gene was his back. I'm waiting for Uncle Paul to put then on Line in JPEG forum, so I can get his. Bye everyone.....Kitty and Harlan

FROM CROSS ROADS TEXAS

Well, Texas is hot and dry. But, that is expected in July and August.

If you weren't at the family reunion, you missed some good food and socializing with the family. It was really great! JP (John's son) and Aimee came up and Dad got to see his Great-Grandson Asa. It was a good time!

Richard came with me this time and went out to watch the Otters play. He loves to watch them play. I visited with family and friends and Karen and I started working on Dad's 80th birthday party. Mark your calendars!!! October 25, 2008 - Saturday - 4 - 6 pm - The Methodist McCutchanville Community Church - EVERYONE INVITED!!!

I've been busy with my National Walking Horse Association horse shows. I am Show Manager of 2 shows now and help with the National show in Tennessee in October, also Secretary of two shows, one in Denver, CO. We had a wonderful surprise visit at my first show in Texas this year. George Foreman came out to see the show and watch the horses. He is a big fan of gaited horses and has a large farm in Marshall, TX. Since I am the Show Manager, I was privileged to escort him to center ring where he was introduced by Richard (the announcer) and he gave out some blue ribbons. He was such a wonderful and gracious man! He had time for everyone. Talked to anyone that wanted to talk with him, took pictures with everyone and their horse, and signed autographs. I felt bad because he wasn't able to watch much of the show, but he was really wonderful. It was a terrific surprise and I truly enjoyed every minute.

Megan and her friend followed us home from Evansville and are staying 10 days before heading back. This is Megan's first road trip and I'm sure Karen will be on pins and needles until her "baby" gets back home. As soon as we got home, 2 of our 7 grandkids came to visit. We sure have a houseful!

I hope to see all of you at Dad's 80th birthday party. If you have some pictures of Dad growing up, please bring them or send me copies.

Love to all from Texas,
Paula Sue Swope & Richard Ratley, Sr.

CLIPPINGER ROAD

Not much different here. Same O same O. My Rat Terrier Angel keeps me in line. I have a few projects that I keep going. I'm not even going to talk about my kids; they all have computers and can write their own articles.

I am still trying to keep up the Swope tree. When the families don't tell me about new babies, marriages and deaths I don't have the information to keep it up. I get some updates at the reunion that is filled in on the tree that is printed and there for everyone to see. If anyone wants a copy of the tree for your computer let me know and I will make a CD and send it to you. There are 3705 individuals that I have now.

Of course there is the Swope reunion I try and keep going. I am on the Reitz 1946 reunion committee and closely work with Bob Kraemer who ramrods it. There are two news letters, the Swope three times a year and the local Coast Guard Auxiliary every month. Also the Church Trustee job is never ending, impossible to get everything done. I live too close and am called all the time. Now they have me on the Cemetery board and elected me president of that.

Anyone that has their own place also knows what it is like to keep up ones home and place. I try.

That's about all from here, keep safe.

Paul Swope

FROM DANVILLE IN

We enjoyed seeing everyone at the reunion. Some we hadn't seen for a good while and to say THANK YOU to Paul Gene for all the organizing and keeping up with all the genealogy!!!!!!! That takes some doing.

It's been a busy summer. Becky came down from Minn on July 11 and left on the 15th. We had a good time while she was here. She just missed seeing little Oliver James Riggs (born July 16th and weighed in at 10lbs - 6oz and 21" long. He's already been measured for a football suit. Great grandson, Doug and Megan's first child and Roger and Renda's first grandbaby. We can't imagine he won't get any attention!!!!!!

The Melloy reunion was July 19th at Audubon Park (always a good time). We stayed in the cabins and had four cousins staying in their cabins. Sure can learn a lot just talking about the past!!

Levi (Roy & Katie's son) is on the road a lot singing with the Overtones. If they should perform in your area it would be worth your time to go hear them. Sara-Ruth (Roy and Katie's daughter) spent 6 weeks in Spain for the University of Indianapolis). Said she'd like to go back again.

Everyone is preparing to go back to school. To teach and be students.

Many things go on in the family. Hard to keep up-just hope we can stay healthy and have the stamina to enjoy it all.

Ross & Mae Riggs

FROM THE HOUSE OF KAREN SWOPE:

It was wonderful to see all of you who made it to the family reunion this year. I hope more can make it next year.

Not a lot is different in my life. Still active in the church. Choir and UMW and Bible study. Still working at CMC, Card Management Corporation, in downtown Evansville. Although, I have transferred out of customer service into the chargeback department. It means a regular 8 to 5 Monday through Friday schedule which is so much better than customer service where my schedule was always different. My department is even talking about going to a 10 hour 4 day a week schedule. I think it would be great!! I am hoping it gets approved.

Megan, my oldest, is going to start college this fall at USI. She will be majoring in Occupational Therapy. USI has a fantastic program where she will be able to get her degree and Masters in 5 years. She was able to get enough in scholarships and grants to pay for her first year. Hopefully, she will be able to get enough for the following years as well. She is working at Evansville Country Club and a few hours at Moma Roma's to get her running money.

Will is a computer geek through and through and is at this moment at Asylum Lan. It is where a bunch of computer geeks take their computers and set up together in a huge room and they have tournaments and such. Whatever computer geeks do, gaming mostly I assume. He has been going for several years now and has won enough parts there to build almost his entire computer. He is going into his Junior year of high school and will be taking JROTC again. I believe he is seriously considering going into ROTC in college and let them pay for his college education. Only thing with that is that he will have to sign up for 6 years in the army after college is over. He will go in as an officer. Lets hope there will be no wars going on at that time. Lets all pray for peace!!

We are planning an 80th birthday party for Dad in October. Hope everyone will be able to come celebrate with us. You will be hearing more about it in the near future.

I guess that's it from us.

May God bless you all!!

Karen

NOTE FROM JUDY

Paul - thanks for all you do - the info, organizing, pics, etc. I blew it. I was going to get Mayme's family to buy t-shirts & put pics & info in them & have you string the shirts up on a wire so we could be there. I PROMISE I will do it next year.

Judy Rezendes

GOSH ! HOW DID IT GET TO BE AUGUST ALREADY?

Those of you who didn't make it, the reunion was great. Nice to see family again, especially those we don't see often. We have a new grandson in the Glackman family; Gavin Charles was born April 28th. He's a keeper! He belongs to our son Grant, his wife Carla and big sister Ella Grace. They live close enough that we get to see him and his sister often.

Our eldest grandson, Jake, graduated (Phi Beta Kappa) from St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia this spring and got married to Lorie Tamguma last weekend. We decided that the trip was going to be too hard for me because of my limited mobility but sure hated to miss both events. Grant and his family flew out to Philly to represent the rest of our family. Eva, his older daughter even flew there from her home in Chicago which was surprising because she hates to fly.

Meg spent Memorial Day weekend with us and Katie spent a week in July here. We did make an overnight down to Smyrna Tn. to visit Meg also. Laurie is still working at Guardian Automotive and putting in a lot of overtime.

Gene turns 80 this month; he is still flying sometimes in the air and more often on the computer. We're looking forward to Paul Gene's big birthday bash in Oct. He will also turn the big 80.

Till next time,

Nancy
