

David Dauble

David Eugene Dauble, 50 years, of Dunedin, died November 15, 2010, at Suncoast Hospice House Brookside in Palm Harbor.

Born December 11, 1959, in Ft. Wayne, Ind., to Ronald E. and Doris A. (McCutchan) Dauble, David grew up in Evansville, Ind., and had been a Dunedin area resident since 1977. An electrical contractor by profession, David worked with Total Electric Co. in Tampa for the past 13 years.

Most of all, David was a great family man, who enjoyed his wife, children, extended family, and friends. David was an avid photographer, enjoying photographing nature, animals, fun, and family. As a fisherman, he spent many a happy hour on the boat enjoying life. When not boating or fishing,

David was also a fixed-wing pilot, who enjoyed the blue skies around him as much as he did the blue seas.

David was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Dunedin, where he was a lifetime Elder.

David was preceded in death by his father, Ronald E. Dauble. He is survived by his loving wife of 24 years, Mary Beth (Keller), whom he married October 11, 1986; sons Bailey R. and Christian D. Dauble, both of Dunedin; mother, Doris A. (McCutchan) Dauble of Clearwater; sister Leslie A. Murphy of Indianapolis, Ind.; and brother, Philip M. Dauble of N.C.; and a host of relatives and friends, all of whom will miss him greatly.

A memorial service celebrating Dave's life will be held on Saturday, November 20, at 3 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Dunedin, Florida.

In lieu of other remembrances, the family asks that memorial contributions be made in David's memory to the Suncoast Hospice Foundation, 5771 Roosevelt Blvd., Clearwater, FL 33760. Curlew Hills Funeral Home 727-789-2000.
