

“NEW” Store under construction. May 1938.

Ralph Ran the store across the road until they would not renew his lease.

He operated the store across the road from 1934 tell 1938.

They gave him 30 days to get out.

He went across the road, built a new store and was in business before the 30 days were up.