EARLY LIFE AND EDUCATION

By Aunt Isabel (Anne Germano McKeeby)

Some weeks ago, my granddaughter Amy asked me to write about my early life for her daughter Lily and their little girl's club.

Thought a few of you might be interested. So with a few changes, here are the memories of a very old lady.

I started school in 1914 in the church we attended because the schoolhouse being built wasn't quite finished. I remember having a sand table to play in and little red chairs to sit in on.

The school building was finished in January. We thought it was lovely. It was red brick with two big rooms separated by a wide hall where we hung our wraps. There was also a large auditorium where we played games, did exercises and had music lessons, because the piano was in there. A music teacher came once a week to let us sing and learn new songs.

We carried our lunches in special made lunch boxes and weather permitting, sat outside to enjoy. We drank water from a tin cup from a pump outside. When nature called we used outside toilets, one for girls and one for boys. It wasn't so nice in the winter!

My favorite teacher was my sister Elnora who taught me in the second and third grades. Though usually I walked to and from school, I'd sometimes stay after school to help her clean the blackboards and erasers, put things in order, and rode home with her in a horse drawn buggy. She kept them across the street with her future in-laws.

My favorite subject was reading because I liked the stories. My least favorite was arithmetic, although when I went to high school, I liked Algebra and Geometry because they were like solving puzzles.

I loved reading "The Little Colonel" series about a little Kentucky girl. The author, Annie F. Bacon was from our home town and one summer she was to speak at a reunion. I wanted to hear her and looked forward to it. But when she came, I had whooping cough! I was so disappointed- of course I couldn't go.

At recess we played ball or "Rabbit"; if the one who was "it" hit you with the ball, you became a rabbit and were out. There was a grove of trees in back of the school house where we enjoyed playing "Witch". If the witch caught you, you "turned to stone" and had to stand by a tree until rescued by another player touching you. Of course that player ran the risk of being caught too.

In the winter if there was enough snow on the ground, my Dad would take me and my sisters and the neighbor kids to school in a horse drawn sleigh. We loved that!

At recess, we chose up sides and each side built a fort of snow balls. It was fun trying to knock each other's fort down by throwing snowballs at it.

There were only seven in my class all through the eight grades: four boys and three girls, until we went to the big Central High School in Evansville.

We country kids had to take a county-wide exam in order to go to high school. Of course we were scared, but Miss Lida, our teacher in grades 6 through 8, had prepared us well and we all passed beautifully.

I remember the long walk from our house, up the lane, around the road past the Hornby's and the Rigg's to the trolley that took us to town. Then of course we had to take the same route home. I guess it was good exercise!

We had good times and sad times. One very sad time was when one of the girls in our class, Ruth Webb, was killed by lightning. She had gotten off the trolley and found it storming. She ran to a tree for protection, but it was struck by lightning and she was instantly killed. I remember Ruth Hornby and I and her two classmates spent the night at her parents' home during the "wake". That was my first close-up encounter with death.

I guess the good times were almost all the time. We laughed and played. We enjoyed each other's company. I wish all children could have as good a time growing up as I had. Sadly that's not true!

Isabel

FROM ROBINSON TEXAS

This will be the year I omit clutter from my life.

Okay now that I have finished that lie let me start again. This will be the year that I try to omit clutter from my life.

I am proud to announce also that IRS audited me unexpected of course and I passed with flying colors. He tried to find something wrong but couldn't. See there is freedom after all. (I was sure sweating while he was here though)

I am pulling in from the lake tomorrow after another fun filled 10 days and will be getting ready for Charge Conference at church. After we wade through that we are thinking about buying a new pickup and will probably make up our mind by then. Manfred wants me to have a big diesel pickup to get me around.

Why I don't know since I hardly go farther than Lake Waco but it is the thought that counts.

Been keeping up to date with the family and what is going on and that helps. Hope that this letter finds everyone in good health and happy. I was happy to see that Aunt Isabel has already beaten me with the newsletter. You go girl!!! I know Paul loves it all coming in.

As far as the reunion I don't care as long as it isn't the 2nd Saturday in June. (I have a date with 2-3000 kids every year). Oh by the way we took a whole elementary school fishing and it was wonderful. We did it two weeks ago. About 450 kids came and they had separate classrooms set up, treasure hunts, all kinds of stuff it was really great. Of course I had the trailer set up and was in charge of feeding all of our troops before it started.

EVANSVILLE CARDINAL AV.

Nothing really new here, Just getting older,,,,,Thank God. Harlan is doing well, as full as "vinegar" as he's always Been. I have a bout of inflammatory ole'arthur every time it gets the mood to visit, and I can't kick him out for a week or so...usually with Doctors help.

My Sweet little Doggie Died, My little black Poodle ,Gigi,,the day after Mothers day. We didn't even know she was Sick. Harlan and I both Miss her, but don't want another one so soon.. In fact, I may not get another one, not a Puppy anyway. I'd Love to get a couple of Out door dogs, but Since the Neighbor at the End of MY house Poisoned My 3 labs, after 9 years,,I'm afraid to try and Have any more out there. They weren't barkers, and all the neighbor loved them,,,(Except ONE) and if I got a couple more they may be barkers, for sure the devils would poising them,,,,I my self don't like them barking all the time.

My Jackie is doing good, She is Manager over Food service in a trauma hospital. Has to see that all the diets are as Doctor orders. She has her home Base, but she has to travel all over to see that other Hospital food Service is up to Standards. She just got back from 2 weeks getting a Columbia SC. food service in shape. She goes All over,, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pennsylvania, and where ever they send her. She has 6 states.

Debbie is well, Cancer free now for 15 years, took 3 surgeries, and Kemo. And GOD. My Dad is 85,,and thinks he is "39" almost convinces everyone, he's so active and travels all over.

Rick, my Step son was in from Ariz. Just not long enough. Earleen My Step Dau, Is well, She works at Deaconess Hosp. for about 15 years now.

Well that's it in my family. Bored ya enough. Kitty and Harlan

GREETINGS FROM BOISE, IDAHO.

I recently moved here to take a job as assistant managing editor. It takes me farther from Sarah but closer to Laura and Mary Helen. Professionally, it's a great opportunity to put me back into the newsroom, which I now realize is where I always belonged. Boise is a beautiful city surrounded by incredible views. I'm happy to be living in the west again and cannot wait to begin exploring the area. It's similar yet very different from Colorado. And its people are just as nice, if not nicer.

Moving here was an exercise in itself. I had two weeks to pack the house, load the car, wave goodbye to the moving van then drive here to move into an apartment, which I rented over the phone, then unpack necessities and start right to work. I work with terrific people in a city where people love their newspaper. That always helps. They also challenge us, which is a bonus. It was interesting arriving with just one month before elections, but it all worked out. . . . even though we worked until 4 a.m. to make sure we could get into the last run of the newspaper as much news as we could get. It was not quite as hectic or daunting as the 2000 presidential election, but they had tight races here and some precincts had hundreds of last-minute voter registrations. Idaho allows you to register to vote on Election Day.

I even had a blast on Halloween. Our newspaper has a tradition of going all out for the day, and it was fun to work with the likes of Truman Capote, The Cowardly Lion (in fact, all the major Wizard characters) and Frankenstein. Of course because I'm really shy, I simply went dressed as a new employee working at a newspaper. I was chided good-naturedly, but one day I hope to be less shy and more creative. There was movie popcorn being popped all day and movies playing in the middle of the newsroom. It was quite festive.

In the short time I've been here, I've been to the Boise Contemporary Theatre to see a Don DeLillo play, "Love-Lies-Bleeding." It's a wonderfully written play about dying. It was depressing yet thought-provoking, and the acting was top-notch. It was part of an evening out I bid on at work that included a limo ride to dinner then the theater. Who needs New York? I have Boise.

For those of you who don't know Boise, I encourage a trip to the Internet if not one out here. It's a beautiful state with seemingly endless views, national parks and big, blue open skies. Kathryn Gale

ANOTHER LIFE ADVENTURE

A person has no idea what will be 'thrown' at them in life. Gee, such a philosophical statement for such a down to earth guy. So here is the story. Monday the 6th of November I was scheduled for an outpatient procedure that was to take one hour and probably get me out that same day. I reported for surgery at 6am not having eaten since about 8pm the night before (my choice). After inserting a line for IV and doing the pre-surgery stuff the staff took me down the hall to the pre-op hall.

There the anesthesiologist talked to me and decided that a spinal would be best since my age and weight indicated that it would maintain better breathing options.

In the operating room the nurse asked me to lean forward and the needle went into my back and I don't remember anything else.

Well . . . here's the rest of the story (as Paul Harvey might say). The next thing I remember was me being wheeled down a hall with a spread around my head and my abdomen was sore. It turned out the one hour procedure turned into a six hour operation and the day in/out extended to a three day stay.

During all of this time Judy was in the pre-op waiting area waiting for me to come back after the one hour. She asked at one time what was taking so long and they massaged her mind a bit. But then they took me directly up to the ward without telling her.

It turned out I had a strangulated hernia and the doctor had to replace a lot of the intestine back into the abdomen. That meant a rather large incision on the lower left. That was not originally thought of. Just means that I have to 'relieve' my original hernia surgery days from the 1990s. It tries the patient's patience is all – plus the patient's wife's tolerance of complaints.

Meanwhile, Judy has started back subbing in several schools in the county. She goes to some special education classrooms that few subs would put up with. There is a pre-K handicapped class that likes Judy to come because they know she is able to handle the different problem associated with the various children. In October she was at Dundee for three weeks when the teacher had to have an operation. Here in November she has had to take care of me.

Allen continues to work for Penny's warehouse near Lakeland. He bought himself a new car and has furnished his two rooms in the house. He liked our bedroom furniture and then ordered a double sized bed the same style as ours. He then bought two dressers to compliment that style (called Mission). For his other room he has gotten a number of bookcases (two tall and one short) for all the books he has. Then he got a 'pull-out' bed/sofa for him to sleep on when we have company.

Judy's sister, Ruth, and husband have visited us here in November. We enjoy that. They are the same age and Ruth & I went to Reitz together. Judy's and Ruth's brother died in October in Spring Hill, FL. The memorial service will be after Thanksgiving. The two sisters are the only remaining siblings out of seven in their family.

Well, that's it from this end. Have safe and happy holidays.

Neil McCutchan

THE HENRYS

Cornelia Henry has moved from her residence at The Firs Retirement Community to a small "adult family home." She is living in a lovely house in a residential neighborhood. This home is owned by a private party who is licensed to care for 3 elderly individuals. Cornelia's Alzheimer condition has progressed so that she is no longer safe living independently.

Hank (Harold) and his wife Helen still have her to their home on weekends for dinner...although she gets GREAT home cooking from her caretaker. Any correspondence to Cornelia should be addressed to Hank and Helen Henry, 7610 Shore Acres Dr. NE, Olympia, WA 98506.

HELLO TO ALL!

I have been staying very busy. With work, kids and church, it doesn't leave time for much else. I just had my eighth year anniversary of my kidney transplant last month. I saw my Nephrologist Wednesday and he says everything looks great except my cholesterol. Not going to tell you how high that is...let's just say....too high!

Megan is getting college literature by the ton. Can she really be that old? Yes, she's a junior now. It won't be long until she starts college. She is still involved in band and made the Wind Ensemble this year. She is in the Astronomy Club, Spanish Club, Pep Club, Speech Team, Horse Club, Drama Club....I just lose track, she is involved in so many things...and yes...still makes A's in the Honor's classes she is taking. She is also involved in two church youth groups. She just started her first job. Yes, she is growing up! She is working at a pizza place very near our home.

Will is a freshman this year. I know, two in high school at the same time. Scary, huh? He joined Jr. ROTC and looks very handsome in his uniform. They lead the Christmas parade downtown this year. Maybe I can talk Dad into including a picture of him in his uniform if he has room in the newsletter. He is in Marksmanship and Raiders. Will is also involved in two church youth groups.

We had a great Thanksgiving at Dad's. Paula was up from Texas for about ten days and I managed to take some vacation time so we could spend time together. We had lots of fun shopping, eating out and just hanging out.

Christmas is creeping up on me and I haven't decorated or gone shopping (except for Paula's and Richard's presents which I sent home with her). I do want to get my nativity scene out soon. I always try to make that the first thing that goes up so we can be reminded of the true meaning of Christmas.

I guess that is about all for this newsletter. I hope everyone has a very Merry Christmas! Until next time...

God Bless us every one!

Karen Swope, Megan & Will Yoder

FROM DANVILLE

Summer has passed us by and now we are coming into the holidays. Where did it go????????? We received word from Mike on April 3rd in Fl that the free stall barn, grain bin and the back of the machine shed we gone due to a tornado passing thru. It now is so strange that we do not hear the milker anymore and see the milk cows in the fields since the first part of Aug. We still have all of the animals, but the milk cows are being milked by one of our neighboring farmers.

We are very thankful the no lives were lost nor animals. Mike thinking about replacing the barn.

Our own immediate family went on a Riggs Retreat in August to Galena, Il a very interesting historic old town. There were seventeen out of 25 of us there together. Eat together -played games together and just enjoyed each other.

We and two other couples went to Shippshewana, In and spent three days and covered the 40 acre flee market, saw the beautiful Amish people and country side. Ross really enjoyed the delicious food.

We came to Fl in the middle of Oct down thru to Pigeon Forge and thru the Great Smoky Mt. National Park. Perfect time of year since the trees were in full autumn color with the pretty streams and rock.

Thanksgiving week we will join our Grandson Dan and his family and our daughter Becky at Dan's in Slidell, La where we are sure to see some remains yet of Katrina.

Then back home for Christmas and New Years. While home we will go to the Purdue Christmas Program that our Grandson Levi will be singing in, and have good time with family and friends.

All of family are doing fine as we hope you are.

We will be joining our friends back in Fl. after the first of the year.

Have a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year.

Ross and Mae

FROM CLIPPINGER ROAD

Not much different here. I did join a group taking a tour of the A.B. Brown Electric Plant today. That is quite a facility. It's almost unbelievable the steps they take to clean the discharge from the stacks. You can't call them smoke stacks any more there is no real smoke going out of them.

Angel, my dog, is a lot of company. She has settled in good now.

I'm still on the trustees at the church. There are always repair jobs to do. Do a lot of keeping up web sites. Work on the Swope site, Reitz 1946, McCutchanville School, McCutchanville Church, Our Coast Guard Flotilla site, and the Coast Guard Division site. Of course you see the Swope News Letter and I also do a news letter once a month for the Coast Guard local auxiliary.

Paula Visited for ten days in November. She was here over her birthday and thanksgiving. Had all the kids here except Vickie.

Evelyn and I are still dating. Seems that we eat out a lot. We also like to hear Gospel groups sing and our favorite is the Conquerors.

That's about it from here. Everyone have a good Christmas and a happy new year.
Paul Swope

HELLO FAMILY!

Everything is going just fine in Texas! We still need rain! We've gotten some rain, but not enough. The cost of hay is still very high and there has been very little production of hay in our area because of lack of rain. We are lucky enough to know a rancher about 2 hours from us that has put up extra hay that we've been getting. The driving adds to the cost of the hay, but at least we are getting hay.

Richard is doing fine, still horseshoeing. Both of his boys are living near us. We are expecting our 7th grandbaby in May of '07. I sure don't feel old enough to have 7 grandkids, but I did celebrate my 55th birthday with Dad, Karen, John, Megan, Will, Evelyn, Aunt Nancy and Uncle Gene while I was in Indiana for Thanksgiving. We really had a good time!

Karen, Megan and I cooked the Thanksgiving Dinner and we cooked way too much! We will be eating leftovers for a long time.

I'm still very involved with the Extension Office. I'm President of the Leadership Advisory Board and I'm back on the Horse Committee for the second time. I've been their Historian for years and try to keep as involved as I can. I am still building web sites and working with my horses.

I want to wish each of you a safe and very happy holiday.

Love from Texas,
Paula Sue and Richard

NOTE ABOUT GRACE SWOPE

After the east side flood this year Grace took a nasty fall. The floor was ruined and had to be removed and Grace fell through a hole in the floor to the crawl space. Grace was there for some time before her rescue and had some injuries.

She spent time in the hospital, and then a nursing home until her house was repaired. She is now home again.

I believe a card would be in order.

FROM THE EDITOR

REUNION

The 2006 Swope reunion has come and gone. The date for the 2007 reunion will be Saturday 28 July at the McCutchanville Community Church, in Atcheson Hall. We will also have the gym available and the basket ball goals can be set one at regular height and one low for the younger set. The meal will be as always, every one bring a favorite dish. Bring your own table setting; there will be lemon aid and tea available. We will assemble at 11am and set to eat at noon.

Remember the shirt colors, those that observed the colors had a good time with them. See the web page at www.swopes.org/reunion.htm there are pictures from the 2006 reunion on this web site. If you would like to print some pictures ask me for a CD of the pictures.

ADDRESS

We have been trying to keep all the addresses up to date. The latest list I have is attached to this News Letter. Please try and keep the list up to date. If any of your family needs to be added let me know.

EMAIL

All of the family that is on the email list gets an up-to-date list by email. There have been some bad addresses, if you have email and have not been getting updates, get your email address to me.

ACCOUNTING

There is a page showing the reunion account. Anyone wishing to audit the account is welcome.

NEWS LETTER

We are still on a three a year news letter cycle. They go out April, August and December. I always need articles of family interest to fill the space. Please get them to me in a timely fashion. We can have up to eight pages without additional postage required.
