

Charles Glackman

Alexander North Chapel

Obituary

Charles Glackman

Evansville - Charles "Gene" Glackman, 93, passed away peacefully, on September 6, 2021, after a brief hospitalization at St. Vincent Hospital in Evansville, surrounded by family. Gene was born in Rockport, Indiana to a family with deep roots in the area.

A graduate of Evansville College, Gene had a 30-year career as a design engineer for Whirlpool in Evansville. His true passion was flying and as a part-time flight instructor, was able to help many area pilots become certified.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Nancy Swope Glackman, who passed away in June of 2020. The couple enjoyed 70 years of marriage, raised five children, had six Grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. Gene was also preceded in death by his daughter, Kate who passed away in 2016.

Gene is survived by daughters, Meg and Laurie; and sons, Ted (Penny) and Grant (Carla).

Private memorial arrangements are being made by the family.

Contributions in his memory can be made to the Honor Flight of Southern Indiana or any other charity of your choosing.

Condolences may be offered at www.AlexanderNorthChapel.com.

Posted online on September 11, 2021

Published in The Evansville Courier & Press