

trouble, now I realize that means they lock the adults in so they can't run and leave. Wow, so many kids, so little time. Really had a blast. Bowling, pizza, and lots of noise.

Trying to get in gear with our annual fishing event, Tadpole Fishing Party, where we will be "Off the Streets and On the Creeks" again. Manfred is looking forward to it again (yeah right). He always gets stuck giving rides in the big truck but no one feels sorry for him cause he can't hear anyway. Anyway the kids (approx. 2000-3000 in one day) look forward to it.

We love it here in Texas and just wanted to say hi to everyone and hope things are great. Our boys are healthy and for the most happy and we can't want for more.

Been getting along fine. Been six months since Sues death.

Keeping busy though, with the Coast Guard Auxiliary and Swope Genealogy. I am Vice Commander of our unit, plus hold Staff Office positions of public education and communication services. The communication services position main job is to keep up the web page. (<http://www.uscgaux.org/~0820404/>) Of course as you know I do the Swope news letter three times a year, and also do a news letter for our Auxiliary unit monthly.

Right now I have house guests, my son John and his daughter Jamie are here. Both have had problems and are having to relocate.

I just got back from Texas visiting the Girls. Rained the whole time I was there. We did get to do a lot of visiting though.

Not much else going on. May be I'll have more next time.

I'm about to end my sophomore year of college at Colorado State University in Fort Collins CO. I'm majoring in Liberal Arts with a concentration in Public Relation and Communications. I'm minoring in Spanish and applying for a certificate in Black Studies. I'm taking 11 credits, and I have two jobs. Aside from all of that I still managed to sustain a 3.8 GPA. I just got paid the deposit on my first ever apartment, and hopefully at the end of April, or beginning of May I will have my very own car.

I am researching the wife of Joseph Swope, Sarah Francis Bernard. I have found a genealogy of her family that goes back to about 1200. But it does not have resources. I have found resources for the family in England from about 1200 to about 1666. I am researching from about 1666 to 1800. The early 1800s is when Samuel Bernard/Barnard, Jr. came to America and he is Sarah Francis' father. He is named in the old genealogy I have. So I need proof and I have found some of it but continue to do research.

Hello Relatives,

After 5 years of drought we are finally getting rain. Too much rain. Is there such a thing? Last year we would have said no, any amount of rain would do. WOW, were we wrong. It has been so muddy around here. I can't get 2 consecutive days work in on the horses. One thing for sure, it is a green spring! The grass and trees are looking great. The flowers are actually blooming without the use of the water hose. This spring looks so much better than the last few springs.

I seem to be busier than ever. The web page designing business is picking up and my Horse Care Class that I teach in the spring had 9 people in the class. We will have an open house April 14th for the class. Richard will cook and I will do a mini-clinic. Demonstrate some of the things that we've talked about in class the last 8 weeks. I'm secretary of the Horse Committee this year and that is one tough job. I have a big respect for anyone that is secretary of any club!

John, my brother, finally got to Texas for a visit. This was his first time to visit Karen, Vicki and me in Texas. I've only been in Texas since 1973!!!!!!
I hope this newsletter finds everyone happy and healthy.

FROM SARAH SOSBE

Currently, I am attending the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. I am in the midst of completing my Bachelors of Arts w/ a double major in History and English, and possibly a minor in Ethnic Minority Studies. Presently, I have been named president of the History Club at school, in this capacity I have presented a film for Black History Month and set up a 4 part lecture series for Women's History Month. Other than school I still maintain my job at a local law office, where I am picking up tricks of my future trade, and working at insurance company part-time.

Over winter break my sister Laura and I were able to visit our mother (Kathryn Sosbe) in Fort Lauderdale, and while there we enjoyed the time w/ our mom, the weather, and a weekend at Disney World. We hope to make it out there for another visit this summer.

FROM NANCY GLACKMAN

Nancy's husband Gene Glackman spent the last week of Feb. sailing with two retired school teachers Elvin Reed and Ray Bailey and Dr. Kenny Reed. They tried their best to teach him how to sail, but were marginally successful. They sailed from Fort Meyers, Fl., the weather was great, 85 degrees for the entire week. He came home with a little sunburn. They sailed every day in the Gulf. He even got to pet a ten foot Manatee.

Eva Glackman, daughter of Grant and Carolyn Glackman and a Junior at Indiana University, has been accepted into the Bachelor of Fine Arts program. It's quite an honor and we are all very proud of her.

NEXT NEWS LETTER

The next news letter will be issued right after the July 2001 reunion. If you would have your articles ready and e-mail them to me right after the reunion it would be great. If anyone has ideas on how to improve the news letter all ideas will be considered.

Paul

GRAVE STONES

Remember in the last news letter there was an article and pictures about the grave stones in Oak Hill Cemetery that need replacing. If they are to be replaced there still needs to be money raised. The cost will be a minimum of $1,288.50 and to this date we have only $60.00 in the account. It would be nice if we could cover the cost of this project at this reunion. If anyone would like to see the stones in question I would be happy to be a guide.
